

Making a Direct Impact in Our Community and Around the Globe

Mills Legal Clinic | Stanford Law School

Community Law	Eviction Defense, Wage Enforcement, Criminal Record Expungement, Social Security Trial and Administrative Hearing Work
Criminal Defense	Misdemeanor Defense, Pretrial and Trial Work San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties Federal and State, Appeals and Habeas
Criminal Prosecution*	Felony Prosecution, Pretrial Advocacy Local Justice Systems, including Policy and Ethics Impact of Race, Gender, or Class on the Quality of Justice
Environmental Law	Global Climate Change / Energy Policy Public Land and Marine Conservation Endangered Species and Biodiversity
Immigrants' Rights	Deportation Defense in Immigration Court, Immigration Appeals Challenges to Government Enforcement and Detention Policies Representation of Domestic Violence Survivors
International Human Rights and Conflict Resolution	Fact Finding and Advocacy on Behalf of Victims of Rights Abuse and Indigenous Communities, Including Focus on Transitional Justice and Corporate Social Responsibility
Juelsgaard Intellectual Property and Innovation	Policy Development and Advocacy for Sound Innovation Policy Impact of IP, Antitrust, Privacy, and Other Law & Regulation on Innovation in Information Tech, Biotech, Pharma, Clean Tech
Organizations and Transactions	Advice on Corporate Governance, Structure, and Operations Mergers, Collaborations, Loans, Leases, and Other Transactions Focus on Established Nonprofit Corporations
Religious Liberty	Free Exercise, Land Use, Prison, and Employment Cases Diverse Group of Individual and Institutional Clients Administrative, Trial and Appellate Work
Supreme Court Litigation	Representing Individuals and Nonprofit Organizations in Criminal and Civil Cases Including Civil Rights, Consumer Protection and Employment Matters
Youth and Education Law	Complex School Reform Litigation Educational Policy Reform Special Education and School Discipline Advocacy

The Criminal Prosecution Clinic is offered through the SLS clinical education program, independent of the Mills Legal Clinic.*