

Carla Reyes, Assistant
Professor of Law, SMU
Dedman School of Law

Curator; United States

Carla L. Reyes is an Assistant Professor of Law at Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, where she teaches business (commercial & corporate) and law & technology courses. Recognized for her research at the intersection of blockchain technology and the law, Professor Reyes also currently serves as the Research Director for the Technology Committee of the Uniform Law Commission, the co-coordinator of the “Digital Assets” sub-committee of the Uniform Law Commission Study Committee on Emerging Technology and the Uniform Commercial Code, a member of the UNIDROIT Exploratory Working Group on Digital Assets, a co-coordinator of the United Nations Internet Governance Forum Dynamic Coalition on Blockchain Technology, a Research Associate at the University College London Center for Blockchain Technology, and Affiliated Faculty at the Indiana University Ostrom Workshop on Internet Governance and Cybersecurity.

Her recent scholarship related to blockchain technology & the law has appeared in or is forthcoming in the Fordham Law Review, the George Washington Law Review, the Nevada Law Journal, the Nebraska Law Review, and the Villanova Law Review. Professor Reyes had the privilege of pursuing her research as a Research Associate at the Berkman Klein Center for Internet and Society at Harvard University from 2017–2019. Prior to joining the legal academy, Professor Reyes was an associate in the Blockchain Technology and Digital Assets group of Perkins Coie in Seattle, Washington.

Carla will be curating for the United States