

Syren Johnstone, Faculty of Law,
The University of Hong Kong

Curator, Hong Kong

Syren Johnstone is the Executive Director of the Master of Laws (Compliance & Regulation) Programme at The University of Hong Kong. He is a member of the Securities and Futures Commission's Fintech Advisory Group since its formation in 2016 and has contributed thought leadership on various high-profile issues including via engagements as an expert for statutory regulatory agencies. Syren formerly practiced as a lawyer with Linklaters before taking up senior management roles with international investment banks. Syren holds two masters degrees, in neuroscience and law, from Oxford and London universities respectively.

Syren will be curating for Hong Kong